That is why it should not happen. (Interruptions)...

RE: Permission to raise an Issue

SHRI ARUN JAITLEY: Sir, yesterday, I had given notice to raise an important issue. (Interruptions)....

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: The hon. Chairman has not yet admitted that notice. (Interruptions)...

SHRI ARUN JAITLEY: I am taking about yesterday's notice. I am not talking about today's notice. Today's notice is on a separate issue. (Interruptions)...

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Yesterday's notice was for yesterday. But the Chairman has not admitted. (Interruptions)...

SHRI ARUN JAITLEY: As regards yesterday's notice, you permitted. (Interruptions)... Both the matters are of extreme importance. (Interruptions)... Yesterday, I had given notice to raise the issue to during Zero Hour today. (Interruptions)... I had given the notice yesterday itself. I have given another notice also on an entirely different issue. (Interruptions)...

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): Sir, you please clarify whether permission has been granted or not, (Interruptions)...

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: The permission has not been granted. (Interruptions)...

SHRI ARUN JAITLEY: Sir, this is a matter of high public importance. (Interruptions)... It is a case of investigating agencies which are being subverted. (Interruptions)... Therefore, I should be permitted to raise the issue. (Interruptions)...

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Arun Jaitley, you are a senior Member. (Interruptions)... The Chairman has permitted only one matter, as far as Uttar Pradesh is concerned. (Interruptions)...

SHRI ARUN JAITLEY: Sir, what is the ruling on the notice that I had given yesterday? (Interruptions)...

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Nothing is decided. (Interruptions)...

THE LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): Sir, it is, of course, up to the Chair to decide it. It is the Chair who directs and guides the House. It is obviously our submission to the Chair and not an interruption. I do think my distinguished colleague and friend has a substantial point to submit for your consideration as also for the consideration of the rest of the House. I urge upon you to please consider it and let him have his say. After his say, I would request (Interruptions)...

कंपनी कार्य मंत्रालय के राज्य मंत्री (श्री प्रेमचन्द गुप्ता): मिस्टर डिप्टी चेयरमैन, क्या स्पेशल कानून बनेंगे?

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Please don't interrupt. (Interruptions)...

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA (Jharkhand): Sir, the Minister must behave responsibly in this House. If the Ministers don't behave responsibly, then it is very difficult to run the House. (Interruptions)...

SHRI JASWANT SINGH: The only request is, you kindly permit my colleague to make his submission. You can, of course, give your ruling otherwise also on it. And, it is well within the right of the House to do so. So, I urge upon you to please consider it. We have a substantial point to make; we do have an important submission to make here. Sir, we are making it not to simply take the time of the House, but because we are really aggrieved about the issue. If only you could kindly hear our explanation and after that, say, "No; no, your grievance is not justified", that is a different matter. But this is an issue which ought to be raised in this House altogether.

SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE (West Bengal): That way anyone can raise any issue (Interruptions)... A new practice cannot be started in this House.

SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM: I got to know that my dear friend, Shri Arun Jaitley, gave a request to the hon. Chairman yesterday; I was informed about this by the Minister of Parliamentary Affairs and he asked me if I could be present in the House, in case the Chairman permitted it, to listen to what they have to say. Now, I am present here. But since the Chairman has not yet granted permission. I am not saying, 'not granted permission; but he has not yet granted permission. The right course, of course, for Mr. Jaitley, is to meet the Chairman and seek permission. And, what the distinguished Leader of the Opposition says is, 'logic standing on its head'. He says, without permission, he would mention the subject.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Let me clarify (Interruptions)...

SHRI M. VENKAIAH NAIDU (KARNATAKA): I am in this House for the last six years; umpteen times issues have been raised.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Let me clarify (Interruptions)... You please allow the Chair (Interruptions)...

एक माननीय सदस्य : नहीं सर, उनको बोलने दीजिए। हमें भी मौका मिल जाएगा। ... (व्यवधान)...

SHRI S.S. AHLUWALIA (Jharkhand): Only two days are left...

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Let me clarify (Interruptions)...

SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE: Many a time remarks were expunged because the Chairman had not permitted them...

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: You please sit down...

श्री एस॰एस॰ अहलुवालिया: सर, यह तो अच्छी बात है कि जो मुद्दा वह उठाना चाहते हैं। ... (व्यवधान)... वित्त मंत्री यहां पर उपस्थित हैं।

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Please, Mr. Ahluwalia, sit down. Please listen to the Chair. Then you can speak (Interruptions)...

SHRI ARUN JAITLEY: I may be allowed to place before you the reason why I should be allowed to raise this issue (Interruptions)...

SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE: Every time they cannot start a new precedent.

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Mr. Dipankar Mukherjee, please sit down (Interruptions)... मैं बताता हूं। देखिए, आपने ...(व्यवधान)... Mr. Arun Jaitley, you had given a notice to the hon. Chairman. The Chairman has not yet permitted it. So, your notice is under the consideration of the hon. Chairman. It has not yet been permitted. Hence I am only allowing Special Mentions now. Shri Laxminarayan Sharma (Interruptions)... I am sorry (Interruptions)... Your notice is under the consideration of the Chairman. The Chairman has not permitted it. And, I cannot overrule his ruling (Interruptions)...

SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE: Are you challenging the ruling? (Interruptions)

MR. DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: It is under the consideration of the Chair. Nothing will go on record. (Interruptions) Nothing will go on record. (Interruptions) Only Special Mentions. Shri Laxminarayan Sharma. (Interruptions) He is not there. Shri Penumalli Madhu.
